So while Superior Carnage isn't exactly the lowest ebb in the character's career, it's not exactly something to go ballistic about either. I dare say that Minimum Carnage was better than this. Still, with the promising Deadpool vs. Carnage mini-series sure to be released in trade-paperback form, and Carnage set to be a major-part of the upcoming `Axis' event, things are starting to look up for ...

Picking up almost directly where the last Carnage story left off, "Superior Carnage" sees the symbiote freed once again -- although this time, with no controlling intelligence to guide it: just raw instinct.

Superior Carnage #1 | CBR

In the yard, Cletus walks past a trio of inmates, one of whom asks if he's Carnage. One of the others sneers that Carnage was an unstoppable monster, but that Cletus is just a man and that men die in prison all the time. In Spider-Island 2, the Carnage symbiote attempts to escape its containment, screeching and snarling.
